CIRCULAR

As per Notification dated 06.07.2009, issued by the Addl. Secretary (Education), the remuneration of the Vocational Part Time Teachers was enhanced with the condition that they shall take 32 periods per week, as prescribed by the Directorate of Education for the regular PGTs, failing which their remuneration shall be reduced proportionately.

In view of the clarifications sought by Principals/ HOSs running Vocational course regarding allocation of 32 periods to Vocational Part-Time Teachers, it is clarified that the Vocational Part-Time Teachers may be assigned Arrangement/Absentee periods as well as periods of Socially Useful Productive Work (SUPW), Life Skill (L.S.), Environmental Studies (E.V.S.), General Studies subjects, beside their usual vocational periods and other linked duties, so that they fulfill the quota of 32 periods per week and are able to get their full remuneration as per the Notification.

This issues with the prior approval of the worthy Director of Education.
