CIRCULAR

In order to inculcate good civic habits among school children and to develop the feeling of ownership and responsibilities towards their class, it has been decided that all the students of schools should be entrusted with the task of keeping their respective class rooms neat and clean. In this way, all the students in a school can be involved as Bal Bhagidars under 'Bhagidari Scheme' of Delhi Government.

Heads of Government schools are directed to assign the following duties to the monitors of each class immediately after the school is over to ensure

i) That class blackboard is neat and clean and whatsoever was written by the teachers during periods is rubbed off.

ii) The torn papers etc. spread out by the students in the classroom during school hours are collected and put in a dustbin.

iii) All the Fans/Tubelights/Bulbs are switched off.

However, monitors can assign the above duties to his/her classmates on daily basis by rotation on all working days by involving all the children of the class. The duty list is to be prepared well in advance with the approval of concerned class teacher and students of the class are to be informed in advance.

Heads of Schools are requested to ensure the compliance of same.
