A meeting was held in the Chamber of Pr. Secretary (Law) with the undersigned and Mr. K. K. Sayal, Dy. Secretary, Education, on 23.11.2010 at 3.00 p.m.

The undersigned apprised the officer about the setting up of DDRS by the Law Department. He was informed that in order to spread awareness amongst the students, teachers and those connected with the Education, the following were proposed:–

1. A Nodal Officer of a senior rank who is committed to take up the job may be appointed as Nodal Officer who shall be in contact with DDRS for creating awareness.
2. A letter may be written by the Education Department to all the schools of Delhi informing them about setting up of Delhi Dispute Resolution Society.
3. The Education Department may identify the list of teachers who have been awarded and they may be involved in the Core-Group for spreading awareness and in organizing Mediation Camp in various schools.
4. Poster/slogan competitions be organized in the schools of Delhi and the competition may be organized by involving 50 schools at one time.
5. The Education Department may identify schools in which there are complaints from teachers, parents, students etc. for referral of their cases to Mediation Centers.
6. The Education Department may also explore the possibility of having Mediation Camps in the various schools.

A draft letter has been prepared which can be circulated to all schools in Delhi through Education Department. The same is placed opposite for approval.
