Subject: Youth Festival 2012

Sir,

This is regarding the cultural programmes and other events under the overarching initiative of Delhi Government called Delhi Celebrates on the same lines as last year showcasing the rich legacy in culture which aims to present the finest and best that India has to offer. Various cultural activities will be organized by department's academies and Sahitya Kala Parishad under this initiative.

Under the umbrella of Delhi Celebrates, the Youth Festival is being planned to be organized at Central Park from 20th - 29th November 2012 by Sindh Academy. Last year, the Youth Festival hosted performances by the students of various Government Schools, Private Schools of Delhi besides youth rock bands from, known NGO's and youth achievers in the field of classical music and dance. The participating schools presented massed bands, choir music, group dances including classical items, contemporary and folk dances. A large audience thronged to see the performances of these young artists.

This year also we would like to include performances by the students of Government Schools. The performances may include massed bands, choir music, group dances including classical items, contemporary and folk dances for duration of 20 minutes.

Therefore, I request you to please suggest us names of at least 6 government schools (may be increased to 12) whose students may be able to give performances in this prestigious festival. A payment of Rs. 50,000/- will be given to the schools for each item to cover the expenses on costumes, preparations etc. It is also requested that the suggested schools may be called for a meeting with us for a briefing about the performances and other related arrangements.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Sindhu Bhagia Mishra)
