CIRCULAR

The new academic session i.e. 2011-12 has started w.e.f 01.04.2011. All the Heads of Govt./Govt. Aided schools are directed to ensure that necessary arrangements for regular teaching-learning process in respect of all classes has been completed and teaching takes place right from the first day of the session. The online attendance module for students and teachers is already in place. Heads of these schools are directed to ensure that as per earlier practice, the attendance of students and teachers is marked online within one hour of the start of the school. Further, we all are aware that under RTEA-09 there is a provision of continuous and comprehensive evaluation of child for which it is necessary that students attend the school regularly. As the link of monitoring attendance of students in respect of any Govt. school is available in public domain, the HOSs/DEOs/EOs/DDEs are also requested to keep close watch on the attendance of children in respect of their schools right from the beginning of the session.

Heads of these schools and subject teachers are also directed to follow the syllabus already placed on website of Directorate of Education in respect of all subjects and classes till the new syllabus replaces the same.
