Govt. of NCT of Delhi

Sub: Intimation regarding officials/officers allotted Govt. accommodation but not working in the Deptt.

Sir,

It has been observed by this Sectt. that a number of Govt. employees who have got the govt accommodation and who over a period of time have either resigned, suspended by the office, are on study leave, have been terminated/removed from Govt. services, are unauthorised absent from govt duty, transferred out of station or in a Deptt. other than deptt. of Govt. of Delhi, who are on study leave or who are on deputation outside India, but are still residing in the govt. flats beyond the permissible retaining period in contravention of the Govt. of Delhi Allotment of Govt. Residence (General Pool) Rules 1977.

All such of employees are required to take prior permission of Director Allotment/Secretary (PWD) to avail the facility of retaining the flat for permissible period as per rules and after completing the retention period they have to vacate the Govt. accommodation. However, in the absence of information about such employees, this Deptt. is unable to initiate the eviction/recovery proceedings against these employees and the govt flats remains unauthorizedly occupied by these employees. Besides these employees do not deduct HRA and Licence fee which results the loss to govt. exchequer as well as shortage of govt. accommodation.
I am, therefore, directed to request you to kindly give the details of all such officials/officers who have either resigned, suspended by the office, are on study leave, have been terminated / removed from Govt. services, are unauthorised absent from govt duty, transferred out of station or in a Deptt. other than deptt. of Govt. of Delhi, who are on study leave or who are on deputation outside India as may be available in your deptt. so that necessary Eviction/Recovery proceedings are initiated against these employees.

It is further requested that in future also names of officials/officers of the above categories may kindly invariably forwarded to this Sectt. for taking appropriate action as per rules.

Yours faithfully

(R. D. SHARMA)
