CIRCULAR

All the Heads of Govt. schools of Directorate of Education are hereby informed that link for online transfer of students from one Govt. school to another Govt. school due to change of their residence will be available from 8th April 2013.

They are requested to process the applications of parents/guardians in respect of transfer of their wards as per practice in the previous years after verifying the genuineness of the case.

Further it is expected that the HOS have upgraded the students to the next higher class.

District Deputy Directors of Education, Education Officers and Heads of Govt./Govt. Aided schools are directed to consider the admissions of students in class IX who have passed class VIII from a recognised school as per existing guidelines keeping in view the availability of seats.
