CIRCULAR

Reference circular dated 25.04.2014 on Grievance Redressal Mechanism for Children under RTE Act, 2009 and subsequent circular dated 15.07.2014 on the same subject. For the effective implementation of Grievance Redressal Mechanism the following directions are issued for strict compliance:

1. All District DDEs will ensure that fixed timings and days are kept for Grievance Redressal when the concerned parties will be called and heard. This schedule along with the names of members of District level Grievance Redressal committee along with their official telephone numbers is displayed prominently outside the district office in public domain. This should also contain the Grievance Redressal Procedure in brief.
2. Information on timings, days, members of Grievance Redressal Committee and Grievance procedure should be displayed prominently in all the schools of the District in public domain.
3. The record of the entire grievance, submissions made by the parties and the decision taken should be kept properly at the district level so that, in case the complainant appeals against the same to Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights, the necessary steps can then be taken easily.
4. The decision taken should be communicated online on the same day on which it is taken.
5. The complainant must be informed in writing or by phone that the decision on his/her complaint has been taken and that it is available online.
6. The compliance on the decision taken must be ensured.

All Deputy Director(s) of Education,
Govt. of NCT of Delhi through DEL-E.
