Sub: Guidelines for the Head of Sarvodaya Schools to improve Learning at Primary Level

National Assessment Survey Report for class III 2012-13 conducted by NCERT was analysed and discussed by a Committee. The Answer sheet of some randomly selected schools of Directorate of Education were studied by the Committee who have suggested a few measures which can be adopted to improve the quality of learning. These measures are:

A. A Uniform Question papers will be prepared and distributed by Head Quarter Exam Branch from class III-XII from next Academic Session 2015-16
B. Worksheets to be developed for classes III to V and should be available online on MIS
C. It is the duty of HOS to train Guest teachers through any Assistant teacher of the school so that these guest teachers are given training to handle the class and also the method of teaching.
D. From class III to class V at least two teachers should be there to teach different subjects for example English, Maths and Science by one teacher and Hindi & Social Science by other teacher
E. Further H.O.S, depending upon the strength of Assistant Teachers available in the school should give Mathematics and English classes to those teachers who are more proficient in the subject.

All the Heads of Govt./Govt. Aided Schools are directed to follow these from session 2015-16.

This issues with the prior approval of Competent Authority.
