The Picnic Tragedy

Last Sunday I along with my friends decided to go to the riverside for a picnic. We planned to spend the whole day there, but faced a ~~tragedy~~ tragedy. We and my friends were just to complete our sand model, ~~and~~ then suddenly we heard a childish voice crying, "Mam! Dad!". We ran towards the direction of sound. When we reached the spot, we found nothing. Then one of my friend shouted, "Here is a child." We went there and found a small child crying badly and just calling his parents. It seemed that he was lost. One of my friend, Ali, went near the child and tried to ask about him, "Hey child, what's your name? Where are your parents?". The boy ~~was~~ started crying more louder. Then Ananya tried to console the lad and gave him the ball ~~that~~ we brought with us. The child slowed down his crying and then on asking he told his name Anuj. In a stammering voice, he ~~was~~ said, "I came here with my parents but I lost them". All of us decided to inform in the nearby police station. We gave Anuj the food we had and went to the nearby police station. When we entered there, Anuj shouted, "Mum, Dad" and dropped the toys while running towards a couple standing with the officer. Anuj hugged the lady who was also crying. His parents came to us and said, "Thankyou! children, you did a great work. Thankyou!". We all welcomed them and together in a voice said, "We had a picnic tragedy."

This is a human behaviour, not to accept but to make laugh of things. Bholi was born similar to every other child in Ram Lal's family but ~~was~~ she was also fair and pretty as a baby but afterwards, she got her head hit and this slowed her down mentally. In such a condition, parents or dear ones should care for the child but ~~Valli~~ ^{Bholi} became a topic of negligence. Then ~~Valli~~ Bholi also suffered from attack of small pox which left marks all over her body. This destroyed her outer appearance. In this she be way, she became physically and mentally different of others. Instead of being extra cared and carefully looked after, she received lot of laughter, taunts and insults. She was left all alone. Even her parents left her in such a condition.

This was how Bholi suffered refusals, negligence, insults in her life till she was not introduced to education. Her mentally backward mind, stammering voice, ugly physical appearance made her different from others and thus a topic of joke and laughter. So we as humans don't know the humanity and the manner of treating differently abled persons.

Q11. Anne was gifted a diary on her thirteenth birthday. This diary was proved to be her best friend. She named this diary as 'Kitty'. Anne mentions that she felt alone even after having an elder sister, and a family. She even had 30 such people that can be called as friends. The reason for her loneliness was the absence of a 'true friend.' True friend in her sense meant a person with whom she can coincide with. To whom she can share all her musings and thoughts. Such a true friend was absent in her life besides being many dear ones on the surface. Anne ~~wrote~~ made a statement that paper has more patience than people. In her opinion, one can describe anything or everything on a paper, even more confidently than describing those things to a person. A paper can listen to all your words, can tolerate your anger. This was the other reason for what Anne made Kitty her best friend. She mentions that no one is interested in the musings of a thirteen year old girl. During her hiding from Nazis, she wrote the diary describing all the tortures done by Hitler on Jews. When Anne died in one C-5 of the poisonous gas chambers, her father found this diary of hers and published it as 'The Diary of a Young Girl'. So, the musings of a 13-year old girl became widely read text. And in this way, Kitty overcame Anne's loneliness.
