CIRCULAR

Sub: No discrimination against the Children suffering from any illness/Affected by AIDS.

A study report has been received from D.C.P.C.R. which has stated that sometimes children face problem in admission and also face discrimination due to being infected by some illness in the schools. Therefore all the Heads of Govt./Govt. Aided/ Private recognized school are hereby directed to ensure that children suffering from any chronic illness/HIV/AIDS or being differently abled, are not discriminated against in any manner such as, by making them sit separately or by excluding/restricting them from school activities on account of their illness.

Children with chronic illness/HIV/AIDS or differently abled must be encouraged to participate in all permissible physical activities in accordance with the medical history and advice rendered by their doctor.

This issues with the prior approval of Competent Authority.
